Men's Breakfast – Saturday, April 28th – 8:30am Cooking starts at 7:30am

This will be the last for the 2017-2018 winter season. The last breakfast in March was well attended, fourteen of us came together at the Anglican Church hall. We enjoyed the time together and as usual had a good discussion and learning experience with the theme.

Donald Lawton will introduce the theme about suicide and euthanasia. It seems a 'heavy' topic, but real to live. I would name the theme The Path of Descent. It is a theme more fitting before Easter but also is an ongoing process. Location for the gathering is planned at Centrepoint; assuming the renovations are done.

Let me know how the 28th works for you and who will help with cooking and cleanup.

Looking forward to hearing from you. Walter Huber

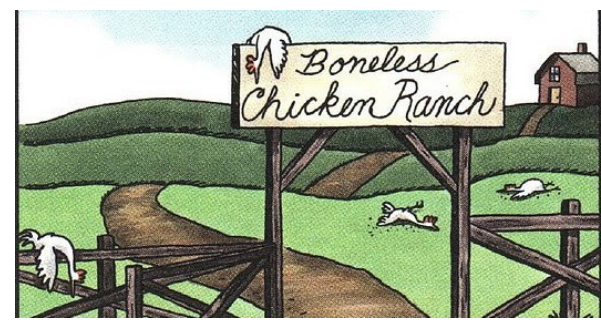

Neighbouring Bingo

Karen will extend the deadline for neighbouring bingo until April 22nd.

Please hand in your bingo cards before the AGM. Instructions: Each box has a task. Once you complete that task put an X over the box. Complete the full bingo card and fill it in. I have already heard some great stories of what people have decided to do with their neighbours and in their neighborhood's coming out of our "Art of Neighbouring" series. You can do this! The more that play along the more fun it will be. Karen is putting together a neighbourhood gift basket for the winner this week.
